Founded in 1990 by Gilles Mougenot, Argos Soditic is an independent European private equity partnership with offices in Paris, Geneva and Milan, which focuses on investing in small to medium-sized companies in continental Europe, particularly in France, Italy and Switzerland. Its current funds (Euroknights IV and Argos Soditic V) represent an aggregate committed capital of €420 million.

During its 20 years of existence, Argos Soditic has backed over 40 transactions with companies representing combined revenues in excess of €3 billion, more than half of which have been realised through flotation or trade sale.

Funds advised by Argos Soditic seek majority equity positions ranging from €10 million to €30 million. Its approach places great importance on entrepreneurship and long-term partnership with managers, based on mutual trust. Argos Soditic prizes flexibility and reactivity and has total independence in investment decisions (upon consensus of the partners).
