One Foundation is a private philanthropic fund based in Dublin, Ireland. It is a 10-year fund, set up in 2004 and operating until 2013. Using an active philanthropy approach, One has sought to identify organisations that share its vision, that demonstrate strong leadership and ambition, and that have a track record of success. One invests in non-profits that provide services through models of early intervention and prevention to improve individual lives, as well as organisations that advocate and educate in order to create change.

Mission: to improve the life chances of disadvantaged children and young people in Ireland and Vietnam, One Foundation invests in mental health, integration of minorities and social entrepreneurship.
